MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: Daniel A. Childs, Jr.
Comptroller

SUBJECT: PFIAB and Congressional Staff Inquiries

25X1

bas:

1. Your note of 5 May on central responsibilities for fielding inquiries from PFIAB and Congressional staffs will hopefully improve what is now a very confusing situation. Frankly, we are getting reports of contacts with Congressional staffers, in particular, from throughout the organization.

2. I fear, however, that your note will further confuse matters in one area--Congressional contacts on resource questions. As the attached note from the former D/OLL shows, Congressional inquiries on the budget have historically been handled by this Office. We assume your memo did not intend to alter this arrangement and will continue to handle budget-related Congressional inquiries unless we hear from you otherwise.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Comptroller

FROM: Charles A. Briggs
Director, Office of Legislative Liaison

SUBJECT: Providing Classified Information to Congress

Dau:

1. [] requires that the provision of classified information to the Congress be coordinated and approved by this Office. In light of the close and constant working relationship between the Office of the Comptroller and this Office, and in recognition of your responsibilities for dealing with the Congress on budgetary matters, this memo represents a permanent and continuous approval for your staff to maintain working relationships including the exchange of classified information with the appropriate Committees of Congress on budgetary matters.

2. The relationship between our Offices over the past year has been a happy one, due to our joint efforts to make it so through good two-way communications and an abiding respect for each other's responsibilities. I look forward to an equally good second year.

SUBJECT: PFIAB and Congressional Staff Inquiries

1. It is becoming increasingly difficult to monitor inquiries and tasking coming into the Agency from the PFIAB staff and Congressional Staffs, particularly when these are done informally either by telephone or personally.

2. In order to allow for rational management of our responses to inquiries from the PFIAB and Congressional Staffs, it is essential that this work be channeled through a single focal point. Neither the problem nor the solution are new, but it is imperative that your staffs be instructed to abide by the following:

-- All PFIAB staff inquiries and tasking should be done through the office of the Executive Director. If contacted directly by the PFIAB staff, you should refer them to the EXDIR's office without making any commitments.

-- All Congressional inquiries should be referred to the Office of Congressional Affairs. This includes inquiries from the General Accounting Office, Congressional Research Office, the Office of Technology Assessment and the Congressional Budget Office.
